

North Carolina Fall Harvest Sale
Saturday, September 3, 2022
Shuffler Sale Facility – Union Grove, NC

Cattle Arrival – may begin Thursday, September 1. All cattle should be at the facility no later than early Friday am.

Sale Requirements:

- Sale Nomination fee of $100/per lot. Nomination fee will not be returned for lots removed after the catalog is complete or animals removed from the sale by mgmt. or committee.
- All cattle should be registered with the American Simmental Association. No pending ASA numbers.
- If you are consigning a bull, you must consign a female.
- No animal over 7 yrs. unless approved by sale management and/or sale chair.
- No horned animals
- Bulls will be limited, no more than 5. No bulls under 1 year old unless aside a cow/calf pair. Bulls must be semen tested and required to have a good photo. Bulls 18 months or older must have a Trich test.
- Cattle must have an 840 EID tag. EID 840 number MUST be on the health paper with corresponding tattoo or lot number.
- All cattle over 1 year of age should have a negative Brucellosis test result within 30 days of the sale. All cattle over 2 must have a negative test regardless of calf hood status. It is recommended all cattle be calf hood vaccinated.
- All cattle over 6 months must have a negative TB test within 30 days of sale.
- All breeding information should be provided to sale management including AI dates and pasture exposure date and sire.
- Embryo lots must have donor status and DNA on file with the ASA.
- Cattle consigned should have a high quality, high resolution photo for catalog and marketing use. If you need assistance please contact Chad Joines 540-557-7263 or another professional.
- Cattle must be well presented upon arrival including being clipped and tagged. Ear tags will be provided to each consignor.
- Consignor should provide their own feed and hay for the sale.

If above guideline are not met sale management and/or sale chairman has the right to reject any sale lot that does not meet the standards of the sale.

To nominate your consignment please utilize the nomination form available on our website.